VOL. III. NO. 97. CHICAGO, FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1897. SIX PAGES. PRICE, 5 CTS

MONTANA RACING LIBERALITY.

Manager Ed A. Tipton of the Montana tracks is in Chicago. He registered at the Auditorium Annex Wednesday and will be here until Friday night. Tipton is a keen character. He talked of racing and its Montana angle in a succinct way last night. "The Montana harness events filled most gloriously," he said. "The thoroughbred stakes did well, but could have done better. considering the display. The meetings will be better than those of 1896 in both lines. That's certain. I'm well satisfied with the entries."

Ben Kinney, a good office man as well as a good horseman, has charge of the general work as assistant secretary of both the Butte and Anaconda meetings. Tipton rules this roost, though. Jim Ferguson will start the horses. The judiciary has not been appointed, as yet.

Joe Murphy could have presided at both meetings. But he was engaged to St. Louis. Col W. S. Barnes. of the Melbourne Stud, will be offered the chief places in the stands. If he accepts the posts will be well filled.

Mr. Tipton doesn't declare to have any particular business in Chicago, outside that of freight rates and halt on the way home. But he is likely to drift around the Indiana stables before he goes to Kentucky and talk with leading owners about the advantages of a Montana trip for the purse display of the Butte and Anaconda meetings—a continuous array of fifty-four days.

This display is rich enough to attract the eye of thoroughbred owners alone. Here is a sample of items:

June 26: 4½ furlongs. Purse $300, $70 to second, $30 to third, 2-year-olds. 1 mile. Purse $400, $80 to second, $40 to third. ¾ mile. Purse $350, $70 to second, $30 to third. ½ mile. Purse $300, $70 to second. $30 to third.

This display is the average of the first thirteen days Montana purse array. The lowest purse is $300 and there are over three purse races per day. More than half are of $350 and $400 each, the flat handicaps are of $500, and there are some four hurdle handicaps with $400 purses during the term.

The Ogden Stake is within the first thirteen days' programme. It is to be run July 3. The Copper City Handicap is on the July 5 card and the Smelterman's Handicap on that of July 10.

The Montana Stakes drew but sparely from the Eastern racing brigade. Had they closed twenty days later their entries would have doubled. The Illinois situation was not as clear April 15 as it was May 5.

There is not any question about the merit and stability of the Montana meetings. Thoroughbred horsemen are not wise to neglect the field. The stake entries show the class of the horses to race there. The Montana folks love their own and will bet on their own. Such horses as David, Simon W, Dorian, or any good handicap animal able to take up his weight and run a mile in 1:41½, or mile and a quarter in 2:08 or so can earn a lot of money for his owner at Butte or Anaconda.

There's sharp action, too, in Montana for a few good sprinters, who can run five furlongs in 1:02 or less. Such racing tools can beat far more of the horses on the western circuit than can beat them.

Mr. Easton's Haggin Sale.

The catalogues for the tenth annual sale of the thoroughbred yearlings from the Rancho Del Paso Stud, the property of Mr. J. B. Haggin, are now ready. Copies may be secured from the Easton Company, 1122 Broadway, New York City. The sale will be held June 21, 22 and 23, opposite the main entrance of the Sheepshead Bay race course.

BEN WADDELL'S QUEER DEFEAT.

Jockey Gouin threw a race away and burned up a big chunk of public money yesterday on Ben Waddell. The horse has won twice at the meeting and the nine furlong race looked to be at his mercy. He was a strong odds on favorite, backed from 1 to 2 almost off the boards. Ben was winning quite easily at the head of the stretch but Gouin wanted to be picturesque and to draw the finish fine. In doing so he underestimated Paladin and before master Gouin knew what had happened the point was passed and Paladin's head was in front. It was a rank piece of carelessness and Gouin was roundly hissed when he came back to the stand.

Hogan & Poole's Morello colt, Cherry Bounce II, was in with a lot of cheap two-year-olds and with 1 to 2 about him, won like a gentleman. Cherry Bounce II is a grand looking colt and can hold his own with any of the two year olds yet shown in this part of the country. He is the thirteenth Morello colt out this season and twelve of them has won.

Fourteen cheap platers were in the opening three-quarter dash, and Howard S' half brother Southworth, off luckily, won in a hard drive by a short head from Winslow.

Pitfall was right at home in the soft going and, running an astonishing race, got up just in time to win. He was played, too, by a select few at 15 to 1.

The afternoon was cloudy and sultry, the track a trifle muddy, and a crowd of 2000 out.

CANADIAN PHAIR IN TROUBLE.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 22—J. W. Carroll, owner of Charlie Christy, ran Sea Robber up $700 over his entered price. John Schorr bought him in for $1405. Schorr then claimed Christy for $625.

The executive committee after investigating yesterday's steeplechase, suspended Charles Phair and his horse Fugitive.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Sam Summerfield, a winner, and Harry Hoffman, a loser, are here from San Francisco.

The Lexington track is to be sold in a "phony" way April 22 under the conditions about the Green mortage.

Winner—Br. h, 4, by Strathmore—Zelica.

Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won in long hard drive of two: third and fourth doing their best. Southworth was the best and also a bit lucky. Lucy Belle met with accident on first turn. So did Sobriquet. Both ran good races. Winslow finished very strong. He is a slow beginner and dislikes the short turns. Bustup can win a cheap race. Lottie had a lot of speed.

Scratched—Spitfire, 99; Spendoline, 104; Lady Dixon, 96.

Overweights—Lottie, 1½ pounds, Winslow, 3½; Gracie C. 3½.

Post 2 minutes. Start excellent. Won easily. It was a hard drive for second, third and fourth places. Dorsey outrode Sheedy on the end. Jay Bird ran a creditable race. She will bear watching. Queen Faro got an easy ride, She will win at the meeting. Cherry Bounce is a real promising youngster. He can hold his own most anywhere.

Winner—Br. g, 5, by Falsetto—Marmoset.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. First four all driving. Pitfall ran a cracking good race. His price was false. May Galop was a bit short. So was Cossack. The latter is real good now and will be hard to beat on a fast track. Percy finished strong. He was interfered with several times during race. Dago lacked condition. Freddie L T was taken wide in the stretch.

Scratched—Fred K, 101; Serena, 96; Little Tom, 101; Glenoid, 101.

Winner—Ch. h, 5, by Hawkstone—Princess Palatine.

Start good and at first break. Won in a long hard drive of two. Ben Waddell was best. Gouin lost the race through overconfidence. Soden rode one of his good races on the winner. Whistle Bird has a lot of speed. He led on mere sufferance though. When the real race came up it was between two horses.

Scratched—Dr. Sheppard, 94.

Overweights—Whistle Bird, 3½ pounds.
